NCC ACTIVITY –DEBATE COMPETITION ON “NO POVERTY & ZERO HUNGER”

Nowadays, our world is facing many problems related to health and finance. Issues of poverty and hunger are fundamental to the problems of modern society. While science, culture, and public education in politics and economics are on the rise, the problems of unemployment, hunger and poverty exist in our society. World hunger can be caused by diverse reasons, which lead to the establishment of different concepts about the issue. The most common reasons for famine are poverty, food shortage, war, armed conflicts, global warming, economy, poor public policy and food nutrition, gender inequality, food waste, as well as forced migration. Hence, the global understanding of world hunger can be viewed in correlation with other ubiquitous issues. A Speech competition was organized for NCC cadets in APS Gwalior on 21 July 23. The topic of the speech competition was “No Poverty and Zero Hunger”. 15 NCC Cadets participated in Speech Competition. Cadets gave adequate solutions for facing the problem. Thus speech competition was relevant in the present scenario for sensitizing the modern youth towards the socio-economic issue. In Boys Category Cadet Mayank Singh Bhadouria (IX-E) won the First Prize and in Girls Category Ms Anamika (IX-C) won the First Prize.

INTER HOUSE ENGLISH DEBATE COMPETITION

Army Public School, Gwalior conducted an Inter House English Debate competition on 22 July 2023 at Conference Room, for the students of IX to XII. The topic for the debate was “Is it really worth to become a Cashless Economy?” The event was organized by Activity Coordinator Mrs Poonam Dubey and CCA In Charge Mrs. Shalu Yadav. Around 12 students of Class IX to XII participated in this event with great enthusiasm. The aim of organizing the Debate Competition was to hone the public speaking skills of the students and teach them to articulate their thoughts and opinions in an impressive manner. The session was the kaleidoscope of opinions, thoughts and perspective that enhanced the knowledge and understanding about the cashless economy among students. To begin with, each participant spoke his/her mind on the rationale for/against the execution of Cashless Economy and its potential future effects. Unsurprisingly, this led to a wide spectrum of contrasting views – from being heralded as an inevitable future, to being poorly perceived positivity and doubtful future due to a severe lack of critical infrastructure and technology. Arguments presented were accepted by the spectators with cheers and claps. Some of the ideas even made the audience ponder about the facts. Arguments were made and proved efficiently by the skilled orators. The competition was interesting and inspiring the audience to think about the advantages and disadvantages of embracing a cashless society and its impact on various aspects of life. The Competition was judged by Mrs, Vivian Singh Vice Principal, APS Gwalior. Mrs Renu Singh, PRT, Mrs Anjali Dubey, PRT and Mrs Divya Singh Chauhan PRT, APS Gwalior. Compering of the programme was done by Mrs Neelu Dixit PRT, and Shaily Gahlot, CCA In charge VI to VIII was the time keeper.

NATIONAL HANDLOOM DAY

The handloom sector is a symbol of our country's rich and varied cultural heritage and is an important source of livelihood in rural and semi-rural parts of our country. It is also a sector that directly addresses women's empowerment with over 70% of all weavers and allied workers being female. In order to sensitize the students and inform them about the Handloom Sector of India Army Public School Gwalior organised an interactive session on 7 August 23 for the students of Classes XI and XII .The session was organised by Mrs Archana Bhargav, PGT Commerce, APS Gwalior. The students came to know about the Handloom Industry in India which has a long tradition of outstanding artisanship that represents and preserves vibrant Indian culture. The students were informed about the government's initiatives to promote Indian Handloom Industry . They were informed about Swadeshi Movement which was launched on 7th August, 1905 which had encouraged indigenous industries and handloom weavers. In 2015, the Government of India decided to designate the 7th August every year, as the National Handloom Day. The first National Handloom Day was inaugurated on 7 August 2015 by Prime Minister Narendra Modi in Chennai. During the session handloom cloths of different states were also shown to the students. Miss Khushi Sharma of class XII C narrated the famous poem "Indian Weavers" written by the Nightingale of India ,Sarojiin Naidu. At the end a Short Quiz was organized to enhance quick learning and check the memory and updated knowledge of the students.
